

Meet Whitesbog P.I.N.E.S. Coordinator:

Jessica Grill

Jessica Grill runs Whitesbog's Pinelands Institute for Natural and Environmental Studies (P.I.N.E.S.) and is part of the education committee. She received her Masters in Biology from Miami University of Ohio in 2019, focusing her thesis on environmental education and nature play. When not fostering the next generation of outdoor enthusiasts and conservationists, Jess is an avid archer participating in local competitions with her husband and running their business, Warpath Archery.
